2. The most important matter between Egypt and the Soviet Union is an exchange of Egyptian cotton against Soviet petroleum. A new convention for the shipment of Russian wood is in prospect.
3. Poland also is after a similar agreement, and has promised the other Arab countries to make analogous commercial agreements.
4. While the Four Power Conference is drawing all attention a delegation of Mohammedans from the USSR is to visit the Near East. Important personalities of Mohammedan faith will make up the delegation. They will be charged with making commercial contacts in addition to stressing the identity of interests between Soviet and Near Eastern Mohammedans.
